

IMPROVING HER SKIN.

One Searcher After Beauty Tells of Her Experience.

"I wish the papers would quit publishing these articles that tell you how to be beautiful," says a young matron. "I was fairly content with myself till I began to read them. I had an average good skin, too, but I've steamed it and creamed it and massaged it till it's a wreck. I've been for two weeks trying a new beautifier for it. I've been rubbing my face with slices of onion. It makes your eyes water, and it gives you an unattractive perfume, but the article said it would produce the soft, velvety skin of a child, and I kept it up. Yesterday my husband rose in his wrath.

"What on earth makes you rub your face with onion?" he said. "Wouldn't hamburger cheese do for a change? Why wouldn't potatoes or asparagus do as well? Does it have to be onion?"

"It does," I said.

"You'll have to show me," said he. "Let me see the article that turned your brain. I don't believe it says onions. I believe it says any vegetable you happen to have in the house."

"This made me furious, and I brought out the article. What do you think it said? It didn't say onions. It said cucumbers. I knew it was something you put vinegar on. That's how I happened to get mixed. After this I'm going to let my face alone, but I shan't bear the last of that onion beautifier till I die."—Washington Post.

LANDSCAPE ART.

The Work of Le Notre, Europe's Most Famous Gardener.

Although Le Notre's life was a long and a busy one, he could not possibly have designed all the gardens with which his name is now associated, more or less correctly. The list is an astounding one, ranging as it does from Aranjuez and La Granja in Spain to Wilhelmshöhe and Oranienbourg in Germany, from the villas Albani and Pamphili in Rome to Hampton Court and Kensington gardens in England. But, directly or indirectly, he is responsible for the spirit of all these designs, as he created a school of outdoor art, which, modified and adapted to suit various conditions and climates, spread over the civilized world and is the foundation of all the landscape art of today. It was he who first released gardens from their mediaeval swaddling clothes, widened their narrow borders, did away with their childish decorations of fantastically clipped trees and made them instead dignified parts of a splendid whole. To some people his gardens do not now seem attractive on account of what is called their severity and coldness, but we must remember that they were entirely appropriate to the places for which they were designed and perfectly fitted for their uses and are consequently artistically admirable.—Beatrice Jones in Scribner's.

CRIMINAL INSURANCE.

Receivers of Stolen Goods Usually Carry on the Business.

"Criminal insurance," said a detective, "is the insurance that thieves and blacklegs take out in case of arrest. For instance, you are a second story man. You make about $2,500 a year, the average second story man's income, and you carry an insurance of $1,000, for which you pay the big premium of $125 a year. Now, if you are arrested, the insurance company steps forward and hands you $1,000. Thus you are able to get the best of lawyers for your defense.

"Receivers of stolen goods are usually rich, and it is these men as a rule who carry on the criminal insurance business. I know of a criminal insurance company in Philadelphia, another in New York and a third in St. Louis. The policies run from $100 up to $5,000, and the premiums are always enormous. This is because the danger of arrest is so great.

"Besides the criminal insurance concerns I know of a curious beneficial organization that is conducted among the criminals of Illinois. Each member of the organization pays in $1 a week, and in case of imprisonment his family receives $5 weekly as long as his sentence lasts."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A Reminder.

It is amusing at times to notice the efforts which railway porters make to extract tips from passengers.

The following took place at a large station in the north of England: A porter had been attending to the luggage of a tourist and, not receiving the expected donation, addressed the gentleman as follows:

"Beg pardon, sir, but if any one asks what you gave me what shall I tell him?"

He got his tip.—London Mail.

The Lot's Advantages.

Advertising Expert I've written the praises of all these lots but one. I'm afraid you can't sell that one. Real Estate Agent—What's the matter with it? Expert—Why, it's on an almost perpendicular hillside. Agent—Call attention to its wonderful drainage facilities.—Cleveland Leader.
